For in the warmth of his presence, our lives change. Without him, everything would truly be gray. Adoring the Body and Blood of Christ, let us ask him with our heart: "Lord, give me the daily bread to go forward, Lord, satisfy me with your presence!"

POPE FRANCIS ANGELUS JUNE 19, 2022

After the four Gospels, we find the Book of Acts. This book picks up where the Gospels left off. The apostles are on a great journey, but this is no vacation. They have a huge mission to accomplish teaching everyone about Jesus and forming new Christians. The Apostles, with only the help of the Holy Spirit, travel about teaching and preaching and healing. They are welcomed by some, and rejected by others. But in the midst of it all, a new religion is born: Christianity. How well do you know the Acts? Consider reading Acts during the Easter Season!

What sin did Ananias and Sapphira commit, according to Acts 5:1-11?

1. Stole from communal treasury
2. Lied to the Holy Spirit
3. Persecuted Christians
4. Failed to pay taxes

What member of the council judging the apostles stated, "...let them alone, for if this plan or this undertaking is of man, it will fail; but if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them." (Acts 5:38-39)? Hint

1. Gamaliel
2. Annas
3. Caiaphas
4. Joseph of Arimathea

This Week's Gospel Reflection

6th Sunday of Easter

"For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that be God's will, than for doing evil." 1 PETER 3:17

The old line says "if you want to make God laugh, tell him your plans." Many of us are diligent in our planning and making sure things are progressing smoothly. Then disaster strikes, we don't get the result we anticipated or an unforeseen problem arises. Many times we may respond negatively and ask, "Why me? I did everything right!" Here's the thing – adversity humbles us and reminds us of our dependence on God and not on our own self-reliance. Rest assured, God has a better plan in store for you.
