1. The Hellenists' widows were being neglected.
2. Stoning

Something to Think About.....

"If you have love, give it. If you have light, share it."
—Joel Leon American Writer

eucharisticrevival.org

"You may know we are at the beginning of Eucharistic Revival, an opportunity to grow deeper in the Lord and share his life through a renewal in the Eucharist. The Eucharist is not a what, but a Who: the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of our Lord Jesus. These months are a time of reawakening to the greatness of God and his merciful grace to us." Bishop Robert Barron

After the four Gospels, we find the Book of Acts. This book picks up where the Gospels left off. The apostles are on a great journey, but this is no vacation. They have a huge mission to accomplish teaching everyone about Jesus and forming new Christians. The Apostles, with only the help of the Holy Spirit, travel about teaching and preaching and healing. They are welcomed by some, and rejected by others. But in the midst of it all, a new religion is born: Christianity. How well do you know the Acts? Consider reading Acts during the Easter Season!

What controversy at the beginning of the sixth chapter caused men to be specially chosen to care for the widows?

1. The Hebrew's widows were neglected.
2. The disciples were neglecting their preaching duties.
3. Money was missing from the fund
4. The Hellenists' widows were neglected

How did Stephen die at the end of the seventh chapter of Acts?

1. By the sword
2. Crucifixion
3. Stoning
4. Drowning

This Week's Gospel Reflection

"I am praying for them..." JOHN 17:9

Prayer is the foundation of our Faith and the foundation of Stewardship. Prayer is always the first best option in any situation - not just our last resort. Pray for friends and family, and especially for those that don't treat you very well. Pray to give praise, to thank, and to ask God for help. Pray to see what God wants you to do with the gifts He has given you. Teach others how to pray. It has been said that teaching someone how to pray is the best gift you can give someone.
