When we come to the Eucharist, we are not just before a static presence, rather, we are entering into a dynamic relationship with the One who has saved us and made us his own. Through this mystery, if we surrender to him, he forms us into his people, his body, and forms in us his own heart. He teaches us how to love as he loves in self giving.
Bishop Andrew Cozzens/Tim Glemkowski

Receiving holy Communion is a covenantal act. This is why we say "Amen," which is a covenantal word. To receive holy Communion is to say: "I want to live in this covenant with you. I want to live in communion with you, Lord." This means I must also live in communion the Church, Christ's Body.
Bishop Andrew Cozzens/Tim Glemkowski

This Week's Gospel Reflection

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Get up and eat or the journey will be too much for you!" 1 KINGS 19:7

God knows that committing to a stewardship lifestyle is difficult. However, we were not designed to do it on our own, we need God's help. Fortunately, God gave us the greatest gift of all, His son, Jesus. Through the gift of the Eucharist, we unite our sacrifice with Jesus' sacrifice to do the will of God, Our Father. We receive the strength and courage to be His missionary disciples.

A Weekly Tip on Caring for Our Common Home

Use matches instead of disposable lighters to light the grill or fireplace or for other uses. Estimates are that 1.5 billion lighters end up in landfills each year, and they are made of plastic and contain butane, neither of which is environmentally friendly. Paper matches are made from recycled paper.

Sacred Heart (Moline) Thursday Bible Study classes invite you to join them for a study of Second Corinthians. Classes begin Thursday, Sept. 12th. Deadline for sign up is August 29th. Please see more information and sign up sheets in the vestibule.
